

CITY OF HIALEAH INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION 2013

The City of Hialeah will host its annual Independence Day Celebration at Milander Park located at 4800 Palm Avenue. Festivities begin at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday, July 4th.

Celebrate with family and friends and experience our vibrant, dynamic city at its best. Join us for an evening of live musical entertainment. The 13th Army Florida National Guard Latin Combo Band kicks off the festivities with exhilarating Latin music at the new Milander Center Amphitheater at 4:30pm. The Latin sounds of Carlos Oliva y Los Sobrinos del Juez spice things up on the Coca-Cola and Sedanos Supermarket Stage at 6:30 p.m. followed by the 13th Army Band Florida National Guard who will provide patriotic musical entertainment.

Bring your children to the Menchie's Kid Zone where they can have lots of fun playing cool games and activities including an obstacle course, balloon artists, and face painting. Refreshing Menchie's Frozen Yogurt will be available for purchase at the Kid Zone.

Satisfy your appetite with Sir Pizza, good to the very edge. Open Happiness and cool off with ice cold Coca-Cola products. Plenty of food and beverages will be available for purchase throughout the evening including a variety of beers. Parking and admission are free.

At the end of the evening, relax and enjoy the spectacular fireworks show including a 20 ft. state-of-the-art video screen in sync with music, lasers and light. An evening infused with music, dancing, food and much more, Hialeah's annual Independence Day celebration is an event for the entire family. Bring your blankets and enjoy the festivities.
